Dear Sir:

We thank you very much for inviting Dr. Pannu to be on your TV program. Dr. Pannu truly enjoyed the entire experience. He and Debi, his wife, enjoyed being with Lynn Whitehead. She is a very gracious and interesting hostess.

From this TV appearance, we have had many calls concerning Dr. Pannu's procedures. This exposure has led to several patients and surgeries.

Dr. Pannu and Debi were truly pleased with the interview. Dr. Pannu is looking forward to having Lynn Whitehead on his radio program.

If we can be of service at a future time concerning future programming, please feel free to call on us.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Ms. Guzman:

We want to express our sincere appreciation to you and TV69 for the opportunity of our interview with Lynn Whitehead on the subject of breast cancer.

Breast cancer is such an important issue today and a serious concern for women - young and old - that exposure such as this is extremely vital. Our society has been looking for every chance we can get from all the media....and our interview with TV69 will be at the top of the list for effectiveness, I'm sure. Lynn was so helpful and interested herself.....and she asked just all the right questions to get the message across to your listeners. Both Cyndy Loo and I were so pleased to be a part of this project.

Our best wishes to you and TV69 and again.....many thanks!

Sincerely,

Dear Christina and Lynn:

I am writing this letter to both of you because I honestly do not know which category of your broadcast public service announcements we fall into:

As one of three volunteers at the Aventura Mall Collection Site for the Hurricane Andrew Disaster Relief Effort I am in charge of publicity. To date, our success with public service announcements has been less than satisfactory. However, on October 21, 1992, Bob Soper of Channel 6-WCIX interviewed us on his segment of "Hurricane Heroes" and this has helped increase our donations somewhat.

Our original sponsorship was with Channel 4 and Y-100 but they pulled out one week after the hurricane and Aventura Mall and South Florida Food Recovery took over. While we are still involved with the Mall and S.F.F.R., we have also adopted three elementary schools, one middle school and one senior high school in an attempt to facilitate their recovery needs. We have also earmarked certain donations to be taken to a migrant camp in the Naranja area. Last week we adopted Naranja Elementary School with the promise that the student body of 404 children will receive Christmas presents from our site.

As I am now handling the P.S.A.s, we are interested in getting as much exposure as we can so that we can fulfil the needs of the babies and children, as well as continue our commitment to S.F.F.R. Donations of school supplies, toiletries, new tennis shoes and clean clothing are much needed for school children (kindergarten through high school). The needs of the migrant camp require baby food, baby supplies, formula, insect repellent and baby clothing. We are taking donations for the Aventura Mall Toy Fund, which will provide each child with a reason to smile on Christmas morning. The Principal of Naranja Elementary School told us that the children would be pleased to receive a Hello Kitty pencil which retails at $.50 each. At retail that comes to $200.00. Our goal is to do better than that and make sure that each child gets a more substantial new present. An account has been opened at Turnberry Savings in Aventura Mall for donations to the Toy Fund. If we are able to meet our goal with Naranja Elementary School, we will then enlarge our focus and include as many other South Dade elementary schools as possible. Additionally, we are still taking donations of non-perishable food, paper goods, feminine hygiene, toiletries and dry goods. These items are still being taken to South Dade and are STILL in need down there.

Dear Lily:

Many thanks for sending me a copy of the tape containing my two segments on hurricane-related issues.

One lady called me almost immediately mentioning that she had seen me and was following my advice to check out contractors. She then asked for several company names and said that she "felt secure in the knowledge that the BBB knew them to be reputable." What a vote of confidence!

Lily, my appreciation for making it possible to share our experience and expertise with your viewers. The next four (?) segments should be just as informative. I shall be watching for them.

Dear Lily:

Just a note to let you know how much positive feed-back we have received on the Better Business Bureau segments you featured on your program "In Your Interest."

Consumers who called our office actually asked to speak to me personally just to say how much they learned from the spots and how surprised they were that there were several different ones. Co-workers, relatives, friends and neighbors also reported seeing me. In fact, one of the segments was directly responsible for reuniting me with a long-lost friend, someone I hadn't seen or heard from for the past twelve years!

Lily, thank you for the opportunity to educate consumers to some extent. We are most appreciative.

I wanted to express my personal gratitude to you for the wonderful coverage Channel 69 has given the Baudhuin Oral School.

Heightening public awareness to our work with special needs children has been especially rewarding. Two new students, whose parents saw your program on the Oral School, are already benefiting from our school opportunities.

In addition, we have received many phone calls of inquiry. Thank you so very much for this excellent media coverage.

Just wanted you to know how much I appreciated appearing on Channel 69 as a guest speaker. Both you and Lynn put me at ease so that the interview was much easier than it might have been otherwise. Both camera people were also helpful and friendly.

Everyone involved at Channel 69 worked their best to make the interview professional, and also comfortable.

Watchers of Channel 69 seem to be from a wide geographical area and from different walks of life. Several of my husband's colleagues, some of my colleagues, and an older woman from southwest Miami saw the interviews.

Again, thank you for inviting me as a guest. If I can be of service to you (in addition to sending you interesting community people), please let me know.
